III. MOTION TO INTERVENE

NERC was formed to serve as the electric reliability organization (“ERO”) authorized by Section 215 of the Federal Power Act. NERC was certified as the ERO by the Commission's Order issued July 20, 2006, in Docket No. RR06-1-000.¹ NERC's mission is to improve the reliability and security of the bulk power system in North America. To achieve that, NERC develops and enforces reliability standards; monitors the bulk power system; assesses future adequacy; audits owners, operators, and users for preparedness; and educates and trains industry personnel. NERC is a self-regulatory organization that relies on the diverse and collective expertise of industry participants. As the ERO, NERC is subject to audit by the Commission and governmental authorities in Canada.

¹*Order Certifying North American Electric Reliability Corporation as the Electric Reliability Organization and Ordering Compliance Filing*, 116 FERC ¶ 61,062 (2006).

On June 18, 2007, the NERC reliability standards became mandatory and enforceable in the United States for all owners, operators, and users of the bulk power system. NERC has delegated the responsibility to the Regional Entities to identify the organizations subject to inclusion on the NERC Compliance Registry. NERC provides notice of registration to all organizations included on the NERC Compliance Registry.

Section 500 of the NERC Rules of Procedure sets forth the process for an entity to challenge its inclusion on the NERC Compliance Registry. The NERC Board of Trustees Compliance Committee issues a decision on such appeals. Once that decision has been rendered, an entity may file an appeal with the Commission.

Because the instant appeal has been filed with the Commission, NERC has a substantial and direct interest in the Commission decision in this proceeding. No other party can adequately represent NERC's interest. Therefore, it is in the public interest to permit this intervention.

IV. CONCLUSION

Wherefore, in view of the foregoing, NERC respectfully requests that it be permitted to intervene with all the rights that attend to such status.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Rebecca J. Michael
