

Agenda

GADS Data Reporting Workshop

October 27–29, 2010
Hyatt Regency on the Inner Harbor
300 Light Street
Baltimore, MD 21202

GADS 101 (Fundamentals)

Wednesday, October 27, 2010 | 8 a.m. – 5 p.m.

Speaker: Mike Curley, Manager of GADS Services

- Introduction and welcoming remarks
  - What is NERC?
  - What is GADS?
- Fundamentals on the three types of data that are reported to GADS
  - Event – What are the elements of the event data?
  - Performance – What are the elements of the performance data?
  - Design – What makes up the design data?
- Data transmittal tools
- Data release policies
- Data applications
- What's new with GADS?

Wind Turbine and Solar Data Reporting (Fundamentals)

Thursday, October 28, 2010 | 8 a.m. – noon

Speaker: Mike Curley, Manager of GADS Services

- Overview of data definitions
- Overview of design requirements
- Introduction to the software and its operation
- General questions and answers
- Results of data collection to date
- What's next?

Standard/Advanced Benchmarking

Thursday, October 28, 2010 | 1 p.m. – 5 p.m.

Speaker: Robert Richwine, Richwine Consulting

- Benchmarking Background
- Unit Level Benchmarking
- Component Benchmarking
- Benchmarking Commercial Availability
- Optimum Economic Availability
- High Impact - Low Probability (HILP) Benchmarking
- Trend Analysis

pc-GAR Hands-on Training

Friday, October 29, 2010 | 8 a.m. – noon

Speaker: Mike Curley, Manager of GADS Services

- Beginners and advanced users welcome
- Questions and answers about using the software