Functional Model Working Group (FMWG) Demand Response Advisory Team

The Standards Committee is seeking industry experts to serve on the FMWG Demand Response Advisory Team. The nomination period is open until March 29, 2010.

Instructions

If you are interested in serving on this advisory team, please complete the following electronic nomination form <https://www.nerc.net/nercsurvey/Survey.aspx?s=658605064ade4ea9af70c65f4c3381a5>. Please contact Dave Taylor at david.taylor@nerc.net or 609-651-5089 with any questions about the team.

Project Background

The purpose of this advisory team is to provide the FMWG with information to help determine whether to add more details about demand response to the next version of the Functional Model. Members of the advisory team will meet with the FMWG on an as-needed basis until the FMWG has sufficient information to determine whether to recommend the addition of a Demand Resource Owner or Demand Response Operator to the next version of the Functional Model.

More information about the Functional Model project is available on the following page:
