10. Job description	Brief explanation of the nominee's responsibilities.	I have previously served on the NERC Standards and Operating Committees. I have been with the American Wind Energy Association for 6 and ½ years, and through my role as Senior Electric Industry Analyst and Research Director I have considerable experience and expertise in electric power system planning and operations, and renewable energy generation technology. As notable examples of my relevant experience, I have served on the Stakeholder Steering Committee of the Eastern Interconnection Planning Collaborative, and I have authored papers that have passed peer review and been published by IEEE and other technical bodies, as well as numerous articles that have been published by non-peer-reviewed publications such as Power Engineering magazine. I have also

		presented at numerous Utility Variable Generation Integration Group (UVIG) and other technical industry meetings. I have authored numerous filings before the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission and other regulatory bodies on wind integration, transmission, interconnection standard, and grid reliability topics. For the past six years I have also served as a reviewer of all abstracts submitted for presentation at the annual WINDPOWER conference on topics including wind integration, transmission interconnection, and wind energy forecasting. Finally, I have served on the Technical Review Committees for the Eastern Wind Integration and Transmission Study, the Nebraska Wind Integration Study, and several rounds of wind integration studies for Portland General Electric. I have also served as a technical peer reviewer of power system-related articles for several academic journals.
