Q3

Briefly describe the nominee's experience and qualifications to serve on the RISC:

Mr. Kappagantula is a strategic leader with a keen ability to leverage business strategy, risk management, internal controls, industry knowledge, and data analytics to find solutions to complex business challenges ranging from putting out operational fires to developing a long-term strategy and vision.

Mr. Kappagantula is an energy and regulatory policy expert who is extremely skilled at developing overarching policies, compliance plans, software systems and applications, and best practices to improve the reliability of the power grid. He has more than a decade of experience in Governance, Risk, and Compliance (GRC) programs and understands how to "go deep" to make real change happen, building robust and flexible risk management frameworks that can bring crisis situations under control. He has extensive experience building risk and compliance programs from the ground-up while simplifying operational complexity, redesigning processes, and driving operational excellence to better serve business and strategic priorities.
