Q5 Briefly describe the nominee's experience and qualifications to serve on the RSTC:

Dan Woodfin is the Senior Director of System Operations for ERCOT. Since 2012, Dan has been responsible for ERCOT's real-time operations, operations planning, operations engineering, renewable integration and outage coordination functions. Prior to this role, Dan was Director of System Planning for ERCOT, with responsibility for ERCOT activities related to transmission planning, resource adequacy analysis, load forecasting and related functions. Between these two roles, Dan has been responsible for all six NERC Functions for which ERCOT is registered.

Before joining ERCOT in 2003, Dan worked for Central and South West Corporation (now part of American Electric Power) and Reliant Energy, with experience primarily in the Texas Interconnection, but some in SPP and WECC, related to transmission planning, resource planning, generation interconnection and telecommunications.

Dan previously served on the NERC Planning Committee, the Reliability Assessment Subcommittee, the Resource Issues Subcommittee and the Methods for Evaluating IROLs Task Force. He regularly attends the NERC Operating Committee, and represents ERCOT on the ISO/RTO Council Operating Committee (and previously on the Planning Committee).
