Q5 Briefly describe the nominee's experience and qualifications to serve on the RSTC:

Steven Parker, CISA, CISSP, is President of Energy Sector Security Consortium (EnergySec), a national-scale cybersecurity-focused industry organization. He has been engaged in critical infrastructure protection within the electric sector since 2001, including 8 years as a senior security staff member at PacifiCorp. As one of the original CIP auditors, he helped establish the NERC CIP audit program at the Western Electricity Coordinating Council (WECC) in 2009. He joined EnergySec full-time in 2010, has led the organization since 2013, and is an active advocate for cybersecurity within the industry. His experience includes a broad range of security disciplines including e-commerce, identity management, intrusion detection, forensics, incident response and investigations, security event monitoring, and NERC CIP compliance. He is intimately familiar with NERC processes and the CIP standards having authored and taught EnergySec's widely-regarded CIP training program to well over 1000 industry professionals. He has also authored two successful Requests for Interpretation of the standards.
