

Drafting Team Roster

Project 2022-05 Modifications to CIP-008 Reporting Threshold

|                     | Name                                        | Entity                                          |
|---------------------|---------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|
| Chair        | Tony Hall                                   | Retired - LG&E and KU Energy                    |
| Vice Chair   | Sharon Koller                               | American Transmission Company, LLC              |
|                     | Marc Child                                  | Great River Energy                              |
|                     | Bryan Yoch                                  | Ameren                                          |
|                     | Joshua Rowe                                 | WECC                                            |
|                     | Brent Howell                                | Duke Energy                                     |
|                     | Scott Klauminzer                            | Tacoma Public Utilities                         |
|                     | Lawrence Good                               | Bonneville Power Administration                 |
| PMOS Liaison | Ellese Murphy                               | Duke Energy                                     |
| NERC Staff   | Josh Blume –Standards Developer             | North American Electric Reliability Corporation |
|                     | Sarah Crawford – Counsel                    | North American Electric Reliability Corporation |
|                     | Michaelson Buchanan – CIP Assurance Advisor | North American Electric Reliability Corporation |